

- House Bill 75 School Mental Health Screening Study, which would study whether mental health screenings in schools might identify students who need help, passed 113-0.
- House Bill 73 Civic Responsibility Education, which would add a required course on civic responsibility, including respect for peers and school officials, to school curriculum, passed 113-2.
- House Bill 76 School Safety Omnibus, a collection of small changes aimed at making schools physically safer, such as ensuring outer doors are locked and that school resource officers receive the proper training, passed unanimously.